Supervisor Report Review Course

WEBSITE LINK: https://advancedpoliceconcepts.com

FEBRUARY 10, 2027

INSTRUCTOR: Captain Rob Fanelli retired as the District One Patrol Commander at the Gainesville (FL) Police Department in December 2023 after 20 years of dedicated service. His most recent assignment prior was the Criminal Investigations Division Commander where he oversaw Robbery/Homicide, Sexual Assault, ICAC, Domestic Violence, and the Forensic Unit. Rob has started a new chapter is his life and has joined the Aurora (CO) .He has a bachelor's degree from the University of Florida in Criminology. He went on to receive an MBA from Saint Leo University and completed his dissertation on Effective Police Organizational Structure Department. In 2022, Rob founded the Southeastern Field Training Officers Association and is the current past president of the organization.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This one-day course is designed to provide supervisors with the skills needed to review and edit incident reports and arrest affidavits. Your agency's reputation is on the line with every incident report written; make them as good as possible. Improve your department's reputation and increase prosecutions!

COST $225 PER STUDENT

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- How do most of us learn how to write a great report?
- When does fixing a report become writing the report?
- Arrest Affidavit Review.
- Field Notes, Arrival, Initial Observations.
- Chronological Order.
- Common Grammatical Mistakes.
- Evidence and Chain-of-Custody Major Case Pitfalls.
- Actual Case Report Review and Correction.

REGISTRATION LINK:

https://advancedpoliceconcepts.com/event/supervisor-report-review-course-brighton/

LOCATION	LOCAL CONTACT	DATES/TIMES	CONTACT
Brighton Police Department 3401 E Bromley Ln., Brighton, CO 80601	André Perdomo Sergeant 720-685-7308 aperdomo@brightonco.gov	Wednesday, February 10, 2027; 0900-1800hrs	Shelby Rappa Executive Administrative Assistant 866- 446-4272 srappa1018@gmail.com

HOSTED BY: BRIGHTON POLICE DEPARTMENT